

Jet Spreads Radioactivity In Five States

Dayton, Columbus Airports Visited By Same Plane

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A leaky package of radioactive medical isotopes contaminated a Delta Air Lines jetliner which then spread the radioactivity to airports in five states last weekend. Atomic Energy Commission officials say there is no apparent health hazard.

"We're systematically going about proving what we think is the case—that no one was hurt by it," said G. H. Giboney, scientist in the AEC's Savannah River operations office in Aiken, S.C.

Delta officials in Atlanta reported Monday that the leakage occurred Friday in a shipment of 80 curies of molybdenum being flown from Kennedy Airport in New York to Houston, Tex. A cure in a measure of radioactive matter.

The same plane, a 96-passenger Convair 880, then made eight more passenger flights with stops in five states before the contamination was detected and the plane was withdrawn from service for decontamination.

John Davis, director of the AEC office in Atlanta, said the while some radiation seeped from the baggage area, the passenger compartment was "basically clean."

The level of contamination measured in the luggage compartment was not much more than would be found in a physician's X-ray room, Giboney said.

The subsequent passenger flights made by the contaminated plane, on Saturday and Sunday, included stops in Miami, Tampa, Fla., West Palm Beach, Fla., Atlanta, Dayton, Ohio, Columbus, Ohio, Louisville, Ky., and Chicago.

Winter Storm Pounds U.S. Midsection

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A wide-ranging winter storm slapped the nation's midsection with snow and cold today and drove temperatures below zero deep into the Rockies and Plains.

Blizzard warnings were out in portions of Texas and Oklahoma and motorists were warned of hazardous driving in the region from the central Rockies to the southern Midwest where the snow was mixed with or turned to freezing rain.

Snow extended from New Mexico to Michigan. Heavy-snow warnings were out in New Mexico.

Arctic cold sweeping in behind the storm dropped temperatures to zero or below as far south as the central Plains. The mercury settled to -25 at Butte, Mont., shortly after midnight.

Interaction between the cold and warm air blowing off the Gulf brought the threat of tornadoes to portions of Louisiana, Mississippi, east Texas and Arkansas.

Over an inch of rain soaked Huntsville, Ala.; Greenville, Miss., and Monroe, La. Generally fair and cold weather prevailed over the rest of the country.

'Cannonball' Too Large

LEICESTER, England (AP) — Steve Smith made his first and last flight as a human cannonball Monday. He was too big for the cannon.

Showman Joe Weston had hired the 210-pound, 22-year-old stunt man to be shot from his new 16-foot cannon. Wearing goggles and helmet, Smith climbed into the gun for a tryout in a gravel pit. A one-pound charge of gelignite was set off.

Smith took off and so did half the cannon barrel. Both landed 10 feet away in a pool of water. The other half of the gun backfired, wrecking the truck that was its launching pad.

"Never again," said Smith, wading ashore. "It's the last time I travel that way."

"He's too heavy," said Webb. "He should have flown 60 feet."

It's going to cost Webb $260 to repair the cannon.

Half Billion Yearly Misspent On Welfare, HEW Reports

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government estimates it may be misspending $500 million a year on welfare, due to "honest mistakes" by overworked and inefficient state and local welfare agencies.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare disclosed at a news conference

Monday that a preliminary survey last April indicated about 5 per cent of the nation's welfare families were ineligible for payments, and even more were paid too much or not enough.

Richard P. Nathan, HEW deputy undersecretary for welfare reform planning, said the figures indicate the need for prompt congressional action on the administration's welfare reform bill.

"These data don't completely reflect the problem today in welfare administration," he said. "If anything, the situation is worse."

Only one out of every five state and local welfare agencies are automated, Nathan said. "Mistakes, delays and abuses are inevitable under these conditions."

HEW officials said their survey, covering about half the nation's welfare caseload and admittedly subject to error, indicates the inadequacy of the present system.

They said the 5 per cent cited in the survey cost an estimated $168 million a year. Over-payments cost an additional $124 million, they said, and under-payments totaled $38 million.

"Most of the errors were identified as honest mistakes by state and local welfare agencies or by those who received the payment," an HEW official said.

More than half were agency errors. In many cases backlog agencies did not reduce benefits promptly enough when a client reported an increase in outside income, the official said.

Women Now Guarding Mail, Probing Thefts And Frauds

LOS ANGELES (AP) — At the post office, mail chauvinism has joined such bygone as the six-cent stamp and the two-cent post card.

Women, who've been sorting and toting the mail for years, are now guarding it as well and investigating postal thefts and frauds.

The Postal Service has 52 women among the 1,300 security guards nationwide. The first was a 27-year-old former judo instructor, Kathryn Prime, who went to work in Philadelphia in December 1970. Los Angeles has nine women guards and is recruiting more.

The need for women guards stems from the large number of women postal employees, said a Postal Service spokesman in Washington. The women guards are able to frisk women suspects, have access to women's rest rooms and keep track of demonstrators outside the buildings.

Women also are becoming postal inspectors. The first two women inspectors in the 234-year history of the service were sworn in at ceremonies in Washington Dec. 17.

The women train alongside the men during a three-week course at the University of Oklahoma. After graduation they earn the same pay as men—about $7,500 a year—wear blue uniforms, visor caps and a butterfly tie and carry a .38-caliber pistol.

"I hope I don't ever have to use it," said Darlene Willoughby, 30, one of 17 women guards in the San Francisco-Oakland area. She said authorities give the women the easier office duties and won't let them guard a high-value mail delivery alone.

Al Burdick, chief security officer for the Los Angeles division, says he has no qualms about women guards.

"In this capacity they work very well," Burdick said.

"The male guards have never accompanied. In fact, they complement each other because if there is a purse to be searched the women do it. It softens the approach."

THERE JUST are no jobs open YET at the Conchemco mobile home plant now under construction in Sabina . . . When there are, the company will make the announcement and set up an office to take applications . . . And that will not be for three or four weeks . . .

Bill Stoughton, Washington Manor Court, Conchemco sales manager, who has been, and still is, at another of the company's plants in Macon, Ga., said the telephone has been ringing almost continually at his home while he was here for the holidays . . . Don Bailey, general manager, is in Tulare, Calif., where the company has another plant . . . Both Stoughton and Bailey expect to return here in two or three weeks and, after the office in Sabina is opened, will start interviewing employment applicants in three or four weeks . . .

Stoughton said company officials are happy to note the interest in the new plant and added "there are just no jobs open now" . . . Stoughton said "the only thing we can say to them is that we appreciate their calls and suggest they arrange for interviews later" . . . Meanwhile, applications may be mailed to Conchemco at Post Office Box 38, Sabina . . . They will be filed for consideration later . . .

Present plans call for starting operations at the Sabina plant by April 1 . . . When it gets into full production it will have around 150 employees . . .

Try To Bury Rubber Fire

NORWALK, Ohio (AP)—Norwalk firemen said today they would try to "bury" a fire in a waste rubber pile that has sent sooty, dense black smoke over parts of the city for more than a week.

Firemen have confined the intensely hot fire at the Durable Mat Co., but have been unable to put it out. They said heavy equipment would be used to try to bury the flames while firemen trench the fire with water.

One fireman said the burning rubber gave off a "very pungent odor, and you can smell it all over the city."

Americans Find Take-Home Pay Cut Despite Tax Relief

WASHINGTON (AP) — In spite of the tax relief voted by Congress last month, millions of Americans will find their take-home pay reduced after Jan. 16 by a bigger income tax bite out of their checks.

Congress has increased sharply the withholding rate, to make the amount of tax withheld by employers come closer to matching the employee's actual tax liability for the year.

That will correct the under-withholding which, for many taxpayers, has been a nuisance for years. For 1972 and thereafter, fewer middle- and upper-income taxpayers will have to mail quarterly estimated tax payments or make large lump-sum payments when they file their income tax returns.

This was a particular problem in 1971 for married couples in which both husband and wife work. The old withholding tables were geared to give them one too many low-income allowances; many will have to pay several hundred dollars on April 15 to get right with the Internal Revenue Service.

The change in the withholding tables was designed to correct that situation for the new tax year—and to give the Treasury the current use of an estimated $1 billion which formerly has been underwithheld in the course of each year.

But in correcting the under-withholding of one large group of taxpayers, Congress has complicated the financial problems of another large group by causing overwithholding.

Millions of taxpayers—particularly middle-income couples in which only the husband works, and those claiming large amounts of itemized deductions—will find the new withholding tables take too deep a bite.

The withholding increase is so large, in fact, that in many cases it will more than offset the paycheck benefits that Congress enacted last month in the form of higher personal exemptions and an increased standard deduction.

Taxpayers at the income level of $20,000 to $25,000 who claim itemized deductions of $4,000 to $5,000—fairly ordinary at that income level—may find themselves paying the government upwards of $50 a month more than they owe.

For the relief of such taxpayers the IRS has prepared a new form to be distributed by employers, called "Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate." By filling it out and returning it to his employer, he can adjust his year-long withholding to an amount roughly equivalent to his actual tax liability.

The new form carries a table showing how many "allowances" the taxpayer should claim — at $750 each, the new amount of the personal exemption—to insure that he is meeting his tax obligations throughout the year but not overpaying along the way.

Nonprescription Drugs Target Of FDA Review

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Food and Drug Administration today announced a three-year program to evaluate the safety and effectiveness of hundreds of thousands of nonprescription drugs.

The agency said its concern was illustrated by a recent review of 420 over-the-counter drugs by the National Academy of Sciences which concluded that only about one-fourth are effective.

The new program is similar to a 1966 review, recently completed, of 2,732 individual prescription drugs. Almost 15 per cent failed to live up to claims and 35 per cent were found to be only possibly effective.

"Because self-medication is essential to the nation's health-care system, it is imperative that the over-the-counter drugs be safe and effective and have fully informative labeling," said FDA Commissioner Charles C. Edwards.

Rather than tackle each of the 100,000 to 500,000 nonprescription drugs one at a time, and tie up court dockets and the FDA's staff for years, he said, the agency will utilize expert panels to evaluate ingredients, dosages and conditions for use for at least 26 basic classes of over-the-counter products.

The classes include antacids, laxatives, antiperspirants, sunburn products, vitamin-mineral products, dandruff products, mouthwashes, analgesics, sedatives, stimulants, antihistamines, cold remedies, contraceptives and menstrual products.

The panels will compose standards on active ingredients, labeling, warnings and directions for use. Each over-the-counter product would have to meet the standards, be reformulated, gain approval as a new drug or be taken off the market.

The first panel is expected to be organized by March 1 to review antacids, with a proposed standard anticipated around the end of July, the FDA said.

"The FDA," said Edwards, "is concerned that many present formulations do not have the claimed effectiveness, have inadequate instructions for effective use by the consumer or are promoted in deceptive and indefensible ways."

The FDA hopes that by proposing standards through rules, rather than court action, it can sidestep grandfather clauses in the 1938 Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act and the 1962 amendment exempting older products from new-drug requirements.

Loot Tally Increases In Hotel Heist

NEW YORK (AP) — Police say the loot from the smoothly professional New Year's weekend heist at the Hotel Pierre already totals well over $1 million and unofficial estimates of the haul were running as much as five times that figure.

"How much did they get? It's like the market—flexible," said John Keeney, the hotel's security chief, as he stood in the lobby Monday. "At the moment it's going up."

Scores of detectives pressed an investigation into what Police Commissioner Patrick V. Murphy called "one of the biggest robberies in the city's history," but there was no reported progress.

The New York Daily News said today that investigators believe the gang may be the same one that hit the Harbor Island Spa, a Miami Beach resort hotel, for $2 million in cash and jewelry on March 31, 1966.

Police had already said the gang's tools and methods matched those of the bandits who took $15,000 in cash and an undetermined amount of jewelry early Christmas morning from the Drake Hotel on Park Avenue.

Big Banks Cut Interest Rates

NEW YORK (AP) — Four major New York banks reduced their prime lending to 5 per cent today, from 5 1/4 per cent, pushing this key interest charge to its lowest level in nearly seven years.

The prime rate is considered a significant rate, because most other bank interest charges are scaled up from this.

Chase Manhattan Bank, Bankers Trust Co., Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co., and Chemical Bank said they were cutting the minimum interest they charge their most credit-worthy corporate customers effective immediately.

Red China Sees U.S. Lesser Of Two Evils

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

If Peking's propaganda is a guide, Communist China's leaders have conjured up a bad dream for themselves and have concluded that if two foreign devils haunt them the one closer at hand is by far the more ominous.

What Peking is saying seems to lend substance to President Nixon's expressed hope for better relations with mainland China. He said Sunday night he did not expect anything approaching resumed diplomatic relations, but he did hope that his February visit to Peking would produce "normalization in terms of setting up some method of communication better than we currently have."

Communists, living in their own world of double talk, do not always say what they mean, but Peking seems agitated about Soviet intentions as it reads them. This involves something like a huge Soviet noose loomed about much of that so-called third world of "medium-sized and small nations" in Asia and Africa for which Peking now claims to speak.

As Red China puts it, the Russians are reverting to type, acting like the czars of old trying to establish "a world empire." Peking insists that Soviet activity in the Asian subcontinent is connected with a scheme to build "a sea lane arch" that would extend from the Mediterranean and Black seas in a southward-dropping semicircle through the Red Sea, the Arabian Sea, the Indian Ocean, the Bay of Bengal, around Southeast Asia and up to the Sea of Japan.

That, said a recent article carried by the official Red Chinese news agency, is why Moscow is so deeply involved in arms aid to India and why the Soviet fleet has shown the flag all along the Arabian Sea and Indian Ocean.

"To turn India into an important base for its expansion in the Indian Ocean, Soviet revisionism has been vigorously (Please Turn To Page 2)

County School Board OKs Salary Increases, Insurance

The incumbent president and a new board member were sworn into office Monday afternoon at the annual reorganizational meeting of the Fayette County Board of Education.

With Wayne Baird, who was elected to another term as the school board's president, and Marvin DeMent, who replaces Glenn McCoy on a board seat, present, the members, meeting in adjourned session, approved salary increases and insurance coverage for both certificated and non-certificated employees and tentatively adopted anticipated appropriations for 1972.

Baird was a unanimous choice for the president's seat, and Kenneth Payton was re-elected as the board's vice president. Baird and DeMent, who were both elected in November, were sworn into office by Mrs. Martha Fleming, clerk of the county school board.

On motion of board member

Marion Waddle, a proposal for the state minimum salary schedule for certificated personnel was adopted effective Jan. 1 through June 30. Revisions were granted in the non-degree category through nine years of teaching service. The new minimum schedule stops salary increases after six years of service.

THE NEW salary hike will reflect an estimated $117,000 increase in teachers' salaries in 1972 as the school district expects to pay a total of $1,228,000.

The new salary schedule has a base of $5,800 for a teacher with no experience holding a bachelor's degree and ranges to a maximum of $9,413 for one holding a master's with 10 years of experience.

The anticipated cost of providing Blue Cross and Blue Shield single coverage for 11 months this year for all school district employees would be slightly less than $20,000, according to Superintendent Guy M. Foster. The insurance package will be effective Feb. 1 through Dec. 31 and the details such as the number of hours required to be eligible, etc., will be covered at the board's next meeting Tuesday, Jan. 18.

A 20-cent per hour increase for non-certificated employees was approved effective Jan. 1. Substitute bus drivers received a 15 cent per hour increase and all other employees received hikes up to the minimum hourly wage requirement of $1.75 per hour.

BOARD MEMBERS took a close look into the anticipated appropriations for 1972. Expenditures are expected to total $2,144,431.29. Estimated income is based on a real and personal property tax estimate of $1,284,000 and miscellaneous income receipts of $43,000, coupled with State Foundation program funds and additional Foundation funds for the month of December totaling $873,000. Total income is expected to be $2,199,000 for a balance of $55,000.

Superintendent Foster noted that all figures were anticipated and cited as an example the Foundation program figures which have not been received as of this date.

He said the above figures do not take into account what the probable loss of the National Cash Register Co. will do to the school district from the view of local taxes as well as a reduction in student enrollment which decreases the foundation program income.

FOSTER also noted that the allocation for building repair and maintenance has not been increased in a sizeable way and the "hoped-for" savings from the availability of a bus garage were not reflected in the appropriations.

If present plans are realized, he said, the district enrollment figure will decrease this fall. If some students join the vocational school at Clinton County Air Force Base. He said this means a loss of money to the school district unless it can reduce the number of teachers and other costs which may not be possible with only a few students attending.

Foster concluded by saying that the auditor's 1972 estimate of taxes reflect an overall 10 per cent reduction, and if and when equalization of property assessment is realized throughout the state, it would appear the property evaluation would climb with a possible increase in taxes although tax rates might be reduced.

Board members also tentatively adopted a partial appropriation measure for 1972 and made a formal request to the county auditor for an advanced draw of $200,000 as soon as possible.

In other action, Miss Lana Haymaker and Mrs. Mary Lewis were employed as substitute teachers, board member Dwight Duff was appointed to the Miami Trace High School Athletic

In addition to this, three more field deputies and a jailer have been added through the Emergency Employment Act to give the department a total of 15 employees including the matron.

Also, the department's communications, patrolling fleet and jail facilities have been increased to aid in making Fayette County's crime rate one of the lowest in the area, Sheriff Thompson points out.

Thompson, who lives on the family farm on Washington - Waterloo Road, said he stands on his record of fulfilling all the obligations he made as a candidate in his first campaign.

We've Waited A Long Time

Only those who had unrealistic hopes about what the changeover in the postal service could accomplish will be surprised to learn that there has been no significant improvement in mail delivery since last summer. Only six months after the United States Postal Service took over from the Post Office Department, this is to be expected.

Recognizing that does not make it any less disappointing that the handling of first class mail is even slower now than it was three years ago when the Nixon administration came in office. It is at much a source of irritation as ever that more time is required to deliver a letter in our country than in numerous European nations.

Still, it seems too soon to condemn the new Postal Service organization for not having reversed a trend of long standing. There has been a promising reinvigoration of management, the debilitating hand of patronage has been lifted, and some of the much needed modernization of operations has gotten underway. This process of reorganization and streamlining takes time, and is by no means yet completed. It seems not unreasonable to ask the American public to be tolerant awhile longer.

This is not the same as saying we should be wholly content with the way things are going. Though improvements are evidently in progress, a demand for a speedup in putting modern methods into effect is not out of line. The public has waited a long time for faster mail delivery, and the new Postal Service has an obligation to use all feasible means to provide it with the least possible delay.

Where's The Issue For The Young?

THESE DAYS....

The Merit Publishing Co. of Northfield, Ill., which issues a Who's Who Among American High School Students, has just completed its second annual survey of what "top achievers" among the 17-18-year-olds think.

After winnowing 23,000 responses to a questionnaire composed by the students themselves, Merit offers what it considers may be a clue to the youth vote next November. Its warning to Richard Nixon is that "any serious Democratic" candidate with the exception of Hubert Humphrey (who presumably still suffers because he was "LBJ's man") can get a majority of the votes of those who qualify as "youth leaders."

The Merit survey, taken in public, private and parochial schools, shows a high degree of conformity among the youth leaders on certain topics. Ninety-seven per cent of the students, including many from the South, said they would vote for a qualified black as vice president. Ninety per cent, including 81 per cent of Catholic students, favor artificial means of birth control, and 70 per cent would legalize abortions.

Nine out of ten students condemn the government for doing too little about pollution, and would be willing to give up some "electrical appliances, convenience items and automobiles" if it would help the atmosphere.

NINE OUT of ten are in favor of the two-child family to end the population explosion. Eighty per cent want an all-volunteer army, but 69 per cent would not personally offer to become part of it. As for political affiliation, 34 per cent profess themselves to be Democrats, 34 per cent are independents, and only 20 per cent list themselves as Republicans.

From the political standpoint the shortcoming of the Merit survey, as those who conducted it would certainly admit, is that the questionnaire was sent out to a mere 85,000 students, which represents 1.4 per cent of the six million high school juniors and seniors of the 1970-71 academic year. Since the 23,000 respondents include many class valedictorians, salutatorians, and B-average students, we may assume that this represents a "high seriousness quotient" that will turn up at the polls on election day. But what about the 62,000 "leaders" who didn't answer the questions? And what about the 5,915,000 non-leaders who were not queried at all?

Aye, there's the rub — on election day all I.Q.s are politically equal. This column's own feeling is that Allard Lowenstein, the instigator of the 1968 "dump Johnson" movement, is far off base this time in saying that the desire to "get on with a new president" is stronger than it was when Eugene McCarthy went into the New Hampshire primary four years ago. To bring out a big youth vote, a candidate will need a potent issue that divides the electorate. With the war in Vietnam simmering down, and with all candidates saying more or less the same things about the rather general topics that concern students (nobody is in favor of pollution and nobody wants to make abortion a political issue), there is little to galvanize this year's college freshman class.

A FAR OUTER, Rennie Davis, who was shouting "evict Nixon" last spring, is now being quoted as saying "I don't know — I just don't know." Jerry Rubin has lamented that the youth movement has lost its fire. Only 200 people turned up for the People's Party inaugural in Dallas, Texas, in December, so who can take the new leftist group's nominees — Benjamin Spock for president, Julius Hobson for vice president — seriously? Indeed, Dr. Spock himself seemed to doubt his mission: he was, as he told the assembled 200, just a

Guide To Good Health

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

My mother has an ulcer of the skin of her leg. It started as a scratch and just won't heal.

Can you tell me what causes this, and how it can be cured?

Mrs. G. O.W., Va.

Dear Mrs. W.: An ulcer is an open break of the skin or the mucous membrane of the body.

There are many reasons why ulcers of the legs and feet do not heal easily, the most important being some problem with the blood circulation. An ulcer such as you describe can result from injury, burns, and sometimes can be associated with long-neglected varicose veins.

A number of medical conditions like diabetes can keep an ulcer of the leg from healing properly.

Tobacco plays an important role in keeping these ulcers from healing because of its tendency to further impair the blood circulation.

Treatment can be started only if the exact cause is known. Your mother should be thoroughly examined to find the basic reason for the continuation of an unhealed ulcer of the leg.

With elevation of the leg, antibiotics, and the physician's suggestions for increasing the blood supply, the ulcer usually heals.

Neglected ulcers of the leg can be complicated with infection, and far too often are responsible for long-term incapacitation.

In any way that we can help lower the pitch of our 14-year-old son's voice?

Mr. and Mrs. D. S., Penna.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. S.: The gradual change from the high-pitched to the masculine voice normally starts to take place at the age of 12 or 13. Occasionally, the high-pitched voice normally starts to take persists even into adulthood.

Sometimes a deficiency of hormones is the cause. When this can be proven, treatment with hormones can be effective.

In cases where there is no hormone deficiency, a well-trained speech therapist can help lower the pitch by the use of specially designed exercise.

It is wise to seek such an opinion and treatment, to spare your son the embarrassment he may feel because his speech is different from that of his friends.

Is it possible to have a fracture of the ribs without any symptoms or severe pain?

Mrs. W. N., Maine

Dear Mrs. N.: It is surprising how often fractures of the ribs are found by routine X-ray examination in people who have had no symptoms.

It is wise, therefore, to have X-rays immediately after every injury to the chest wall.

Dear Abby: You Need A Higher Stack Of Bibles

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Please, no names or cities on this. I am a 51-year-old widow. I'm considered attractive. I have no family responsibilities as my only child is married.

I have dated a number of eligible men, but there is one I care for above all the others. He's 57, but looks much younger. We've been dating for about six months, and I know he cares for me, too. He has been an absolute angel and a perfect gentleman. Last night he told me he loved me, but would not propose marriage because he had had surgery a few years ago, which terminated his sex life.

I told him it didn't matter to me because I never placed much importance on sex anyway, which is the God's honest truth!

"stand-in" candidate for an as yet unchosen "bigger national figure."

If the Davises, Rubins, and Spocks show such indecision, doesn't this mean that we are moving out of a polarized political climate? This must necessarily affect the two old parties. Without a tug from the extremes, they must both tend toward the middle. This should portend a relatively tame election year in which the student turnout is low. If, in an uncertain world, a big divisive issue does emerge by summer, things could change swiftly. But the political year of 1972 begins in the doldrums, and with a Nixon-Muskie contest looming, that is where it is likely to stay.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 28-year-old man. Unmarried. I know I sometimes make those around me uncomfortable because I am so compulsive about order, perfection, and cleanliness. For instance, the money in my wallet must be arranged with

Down Memory Lane With Hal By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — At the advent of a new year, we look before and after.

It is a time to make modest or vast new plans for the days ahead, but it is also a season of remembrance, a time when the heart lives again in its past.

Your own mind and heart have much to recall if you can look back and remember when—

On Monday while doing the laundry housewives spent most of the day talking to themselves with their mouths full of clothsops.

A juvenile delinquent was a kid who started smoking corn-corn cigarettes behind the barn at 15.

Few communities ever voted down a bond issue to build a new school building. Education was held to be the best answer to the challenge of the future.

Someone in the house always buttered the inside of a metal pail before taking it to the corner saloon to be filled with beer. The butter was supposed to cut down the amount of foam.

Business secretaries wore long skirts and white blouses and usually had a pencil stuck in their hair buns.

A young teacher sometimes secretly dated a member of the high school football team, but if her principal or the school board found out it would cost her her job.

Superstitious kids walked carefully along the sidewalk for fear that if they stepped on a crack they'd break their grandmother's back.

There were more walrus mustaches than there were walruses.

You knew you were in a cultured family if all the girls in it could play the piano or foot-pumped organ.

When a son or daughter of an immigrant family graduated from his school, his diploma was framed and hung on the living room wall.

If you were middle-aged and wanted to look elegant, you wore rimless eyeglasses—like President Woodrow Wilson's.

You could make a child happy for days by buying it a ten-cent red rubber ball to play with.

Any girl seen blowing cigarette smoke through her nose in public, it was widely felt, would end up in hell pretty soon.

Automobiles were still so scarce that when one driver met another he would squeeze on the rubber bulb of his big brass horn to salute him.

If a girl in a small town went to the public library more than once a month, half the people suspected she was an intellectual and the other half simply realized she was still looking for the right boy.

A fellow felt embarrassed if his minister saw him coming out of either bowling alley or a pool hall.

Those were the days—remember?

Experts Hedge, But Business Outlook 'Good'

By JOHN CUNIFF AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — A final review of the independent economic forecasts that have proliferated since fall shows a consensus for tremendous gains during 1972, on the order of $100 billion in growth.

From reading the words you might not guess that this is the outlook. Economic forecasting is to some extent a game of chance.

Forecasters are hedging their words if not the figures. Political or monetary problems might confuse everything. Continued unemployment might sour the people. Controls might depress.

Moreover, a sense of propriety causes the wording to be somewhat at variance with the figures being offered. Now everyone will share in the advance—unemployment is seen remaining above 4.5 per cent—so the word "boom" is inappropriate.

Perhaps as daring as any, therefore, is the forecast by Argus Research, upon whom much of the investment community relies heavily. This is the message delivered to Argus subscribers on New Year's Eve: "For the first time since 1966, the conventional wish for a prosperous new year has a strong chance of coming true in 1972."

At the same time, clients of Lionel D. Edie, economic consultants, were told that "chances of 1972 being an altogether favorable business year are high."

Rimfret-Boston Associates summed up its many forecasts in four words, "The emphasis

Big 8 Teams Rule Final Grid Poll

Time Out

By Mike Flynn
Record-Herald Sports Editor

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Big Eight is the toughest conference... no contest, Nebraska's All-American middle guard, Rich Glover, after the Cornhuskers demolished Alabama 38-6 in the Orange Bowl New Year's night.

And the nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters who vote in The Associated Press' weekly college football poll apparently agree, because they voted Big Eight teams to the top three places in the final poll of the 1971 college season.

Nebraska, of course, took the top spot, garnering all 55 first-place votes for a perfect score of 1,100 points. Nebraska's rout of previously unbeaten Alabama completed a 13-0 season for Coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers.

Oklahoma, 11-1 with the only loss come at the hands of Nebraska 35-31 Thanksgiving Day, was a unanimous choice for the runner-up spot with 990 points after whipping Auburn 40-22 in the Sugar Bowl.

A third Big Eight team, Colorado, captured third place with 746 votes after defeating Houston 29-17 in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl. Colorado's only defeat in a 10-2 season were to Nebraska and Oklahoma.

No conference had ever swept the top two spots in the poll, but the Big Eight went 1-2. It was the second consecutive national championship for Nebraska, a team which has won its last 23 outings and has gone 32 games without a loss.

Nebraska is only the sixth squad to win consecutive crowns. The others were Minnesota in 1940-1, Army in 1944-5, Notre Dame in 1946-7, Oklahoma in 1955-6 and Alabama in 1964-5. No team has ever won three in a row.

Alabama collected 674 points to nose out Penn State for the fourth spot in the poll. The Nittany Lions, 30-6 victors over Texas in the Cotton Bowl, 35-15 in the Sun Bowl, Louisiana State could not climb above 11th place, while Auburn dropped to 12th after being crushed by Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl.

Notre Dame retained the 13th spot, followed by unbeaten Toledo, Mississippi, Arkansas, Houston, Texas, Washington and Southern California.

The Top Twenty teams, with season records and total points tabulated on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8 etc.

Dolphins Over Dallas

If you'd like to see a brash band of former ragamuffins reach the highest pinnacle of pro football's kingdom then you'd better jump aboard the Miami Dolphins' hysterical bandwagon.

The Cinderella Dolphins, who have formed a habit of bumping off the big boys, are Time Out's pick to win their Super Bowl VI date with Dallas and its famed doomsday defense.

If Don Shula hadn't moved south to the subtropical peninsula, the Miami Dolphins would still be in the doldrums of the American Football Conference.

Yepremian's 37-yard field goal broke up the historical double overtime drama and nudged the Kansas City Chiefs 16-13 to earn the playoff date with the Colts.

On Sunday, it was time for the defending world champion Colts, the poised team that won the 1971 Super Bowl on the same field a year ago on flashy Jim O'Brien's 32-yard boot in the last five seconds, to get theirs.

The Dolphins hopped Baltimore 21-0, the first shutout for the defending world kings since the Chicago Bears turned that trick in 1965.

It was a textbook victory for the Dolphins, and the crowd of 78,629 at the Orange Bowl, which was the largest ever to watch the Bob Griese-led team in Miami, went wild at the end of the game and police had to use dogs to chase hordes of fans away from the goal posts and off the artificial turf.

In the Super Bowl, the Dolphins should keep the wildest and loudest cheering section in professional football bragging with a win over Dallas, which behind three-year Navy man and Heisman winner Roger Staubach, scrambled a San Francisco dizzy in a 14-3 National Conference victory Sunday afternoon.

MIAMI'S offense operates like a well-oiled machine and the Dolphins proved that their blocking was decisive on the basis of safety Dick Anderson's 62-yard pass interception return. And the virtually unknown defense tackled viciously and stuck with merciful swiftness in vanquishing the Colts and their 38-year-old field general, John Unitas.

The ultra-smooth Dolphin offense quarterbacked by the five-year Purdue product, will have the Cowboys' ears and nerves popping at New Orleans with the backfield grace of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick and the talented hands of speedy Paul Warfield.

The names of defensive stalwarts Curtis Johnson, Lloyd Mumphord, Mike Kolen, Doug Swift and Tim Foley will become household words to overshadow Tom Landry's doomsday boys.

TEXAS HUNTERS
Eleven area men who were classmates at Frankfort High School, joined another of their old school buddies recently for a four-day hunting trip in Texas and chewed the fat with former New York Yankee great, Mickey Mantle.

Richard Pickens, a prominent Texas businessman, has hosted his old classmates annually to hunt deer, quail, wild hogs and wild turkey at his lodge in Camp Dilley, Tex.

Mantle, who told the group several humorous tales about his life in the major leagues, was joined by his insurance partner, George May, Carlton Massie, an ex-Cleveland Brown, was also in the hunting party and Sonny Pelt, an ex-heavyweight prize fighter who lost only five of 44 bouts, served as the guide.

Ohio hunters on the trip were Ralph Garrison, Ohio 41-S, John A. Junk, Flakes Ford Road, Marcus Cottrill, New Holland, Wendell Putnam, Carvel Thompson, Harold Gilmore, Bob Orr and Forrest Lykins, all of the Frankfort area, Donald Bowers, Canal Winchester, Russell Putnam, Wooster, and Kermit Massie, Jackson.

THE FORMER

Baltimore boss, like a pro football Moses, has led the six-year-old Dolphins to the promised land — Super Bowl. He has masterminded the miracle in only two seasons since taking over football's answer to the New York Mets with palm trees, green sweat-shirts and helmets.

In fact, that 1969 Dolphin team registered a dismal 3-10 record which sent former head coach George Wilson into the real estate business.

In Shula's debut, the Dolphins raced to a glittering 10-4 record, blemished by a 21-14 playoff loss to the rugged Oakland Raiders.

MIAMI'S 1971 record was 10-3-1 and thanks to Baltimore's loss in the regular season finale to New England, the one-time stepchild of the old American Football League, captured the Eastern Division of the AFC.

TO ADD to the Dolphins' success story, which reads like a hollywood script. G A R O

Csonka-Kiick Combo Eyes Super Bowl

MIAMI (AP) — The legend of Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid has spread to the Super Bowl.

"In the somewhat gruesome, even blood-thirsty world of pro football," said Sundance, "we go more for playing the game for enjoyment."

Sundance is 237-pound full-back Larry Csonka. Butch is Jim Kiick, his 215-pound running mate in the Miami Dolphins' backfield.

"We're a couple of guys who seldom show how serious we are," said Csonka. "So, after the movie about Butch and Sundance became so popular, we were likened to the screen pair."

The Miami Herald dressed Csonka and Kiick in 19th Century finery for a portrait that graced the cover of the newspaper's preseason football section.

An automaker liked the pose and contracted the Dolphin aces to dress up again for a television commercial.

Dolphin fans went wild about their heroes and the Herald began selling color copies of the portrait at 50 cents a copy. Many a Miami kid's wall is papered with Butch and Sundance.

"Jim and I became close friends, but it's been somewhat overdone," said Csonka, who was walking off the leftover hurts Monday from Miami's 21-0 playoff victory over Baltimore 24 hours earlier.

Dolphins Coach Gets Call From President

MIAMI (AP)—Miami Dolphin coach Don Shula said he first thought someone was pulling his leg at 1:30 Monday morning when a late-night telephone caller identified himself as President Nixon.

"I started scrutinizing the voice, but in only a few seconds I knew it was the President," said Shula.

Nixon was calling the Dolphin coach to congratulate him on Miami's 21-0 shutout of the Baltimore Colts Sunday for the American Football Conference championship.

Bruins Hold Top Spot In College Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tournament triumphs have provided a full market for Penn and Louisville, pushing their stock way up in the college basketball polls.

Penn., winner of the Kodak Classic last week, lunged ahead eight places to No. 6 and Louisville, a runaway victor in the Holiday Festival, also moved up eight spots to No. 7.

UCLA, meanwhile, continues in its familiar strongman role of No. 1 after winning its own Bruin Classic.

A nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters almost made it unanimous, handing the Bruins 41 first-place votes. Marquette, which won the Milwaukee Classic, got the only other top ballot and finished second in the voting, same as last week.

The Bruins collected a total of 838 points to the Warriors' 816, shaving the top-ranked team's lead from 45 last week. North Carolina, winner of the Sugar Bowl Tournament, stepped up one place to No. 3 with 830 points. South Carolina, which lost the Quaker City Festival, moved back one spot to No. 4 with 443.

Indiana, champion of the Old Dominion during the tournament, moved up two spots to No. 5 with 362 points.

After Penn and Louisville, Long Beach State held down No. 8 after winning the International City Classic; Virginia was No. 9 after taking the Palmetto Classic and Ohio State dropped four spots to No. 10 when beaten by UCLA in the Bruin finals.

Prep Cage Ratings Released

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—There are some familiar names among the Class AAA and AA state high school basketball title challengers, but the Class A set is entirely new.

In the first Associated Press poll of the season Monday, Boardman, a third year ago, lodged in the top spot in class AAA and defending Class AA king Wellsville was No. 1 again.

Four of the Class AAA top ten of 1971 were back among the elite while there were three newcomers in Class AA.

Licking Heights, 5-1, located at Summit Station in Licking County, earned the No. 1 position in Class A. Heights is new to the rankings and the rest of the small school top ten are newcomers from last season.

Boardman, off to a 7-1 start, piled up 167 points while defending Class AAA poll and state tournament champion Columbus Walnut Ridge, 7-0, was second with 128 points and Columbus South, 7-1, third with 88 points.

Fourth-place Celina, 8-0, which was No. 8 last winter, and eight-place Findlay, 7-1, second in 1971, joined Boardman and Walnut Ridge as big school holdovers in the top ten. Wellsville, 7-0 and working on a 25-game regular season victory streak, totaled 93 points to 79 for runnerup Granville, 7-0. South Point, 8-0, took third place in Class AA with 60 points.

Columbus Ready, 9-1, fourth this week and No. 9 last season, and Waverly, 5-2, second last year, but tied with Lexington for eighth place in the opening 1972 ratings, joined Wellsville as old faces in the top ten Class AA.

Licking Heights collected 76 points to 68 for 4-0 Sebring in the Class A poll.

Third place belonged to Lowellville, 6-0, with 53 points, Brimley, 9-1, was fourth with 49 points and Garrettsville Garfield, 7-0 No. 5 with 46 points.

Fred Taylor gulped down another pill for his touchy stomach and decided 57 per cent shooting by his Ohio State basketball team has to be a good sign for the Big Ten season starting Saturday.

"We certainly haven't shot that well this year," said Taylor after his defending Big Ten champion bounced visiting Creighton 94-76 Monday night to take an 8-2 record to Purdue.

The Buckeyes, already deep in talent, uncovered another dependable substitute, sophomore Jack Wolf. The 6-foot-6 sophomore from Columbus ripped in 10 points and teamed with Alan Horynyak to lead an Ohio State comeback.

In other college roundball action Monday night, the University of Dayton pulled a surprise, 73-69 victory over favored Houston, breaking the Texas school's four-game winning streak.

Dayton led all the way except for a brief period in the second half when Houston took a 55-54 edge. Donald Smith of Dayton led both teams with 23 points. Dayton is now 4-1 and Houston is 6-4.

Defiance stretched its perfect season to nine consecutive wins with a 97-92 victory over Ohio Northern, now 4-4. Defiance had five men in double figures, led by Ken Bush's 19 points. Rick Scaletta led Ohio Northern with 21.

It took an overtime period to do it, but Akron University squeezed a 57-53 victory out of hard-playing Wittenberg. Akron's Larry Quarles scored all seven of his team's overtime points with a field goal and five free throws.

Akron now stands 7-1. Wittenberg has two wins against five losses.

Xavier never trailed against Marion, Ind., and finished with an 83-70 victory, sprinting to an early lead on a scoring spurt by Bob Fullerton, who led the Musketeers with 18.

Wright State failed to sustain a halftime lead against Thomas Moore of Kentucky and ended up on the losing end of the 76-61 final score.

Bill Higgins scored 24 points for Ashland as the Eagles met Earlham of Indiana, but it wasn't enough and the Eagles went down, 85-75.

The University of Cincinnati Bearcats paralyzed a 27-point, 12-rebound performance by Lloyd Batts into an 81-78 victory over Drake of Iowa.

Big Ten Cage Powers Face Rugged Contests

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Big Ten basketball teams have carved a formidable record against intersectional foes this season, but they simply can't seem to cope with the two ranking powers.

Ohio State and Iowa, warming up for conference openers Saturday, came up with home-court victories but Wisconsin fell before Marquette's mighty Warriors.

The Buckeyes dumped Creighton 94-76 and Iowa seconded its fourth victory in the Hawkeyes' last five starts by downing Kansas 81-68.

Wisconsin took an early lead against Marquette but finally yielded to the undefeated Warriors 72-60.

Coaches Are Named For All-Star Contest
NEW YORK (AP) — Joe Mullaney of the Kentucky Colonels and LaDell Anderson of the Utah Stars were officially named Tuesday as the coaches for the American Basketball Association All-Star game in Louisville on Jan. 29.

Mullaney, whose team has a commanding lead in the Eastern Division, will coach the East club while Anderson will coach the West after leading the Stars to a runaway lead in that division.

Knicks Stop Milwaukee

NEW YORK (AP) — Walt Frazier, a neutral observer, believes the Milwaukee Bucks, defending champions of the National Basketball Association, are better than the Los Angeles Lakers, the league's hottest team with 31 consecutive victories.

"I'll take the Bucks," said Frazier Monday night after he had sparked the New York Knicks to a 101-99 comeback victory over Milwaukee in a nationally televised game.

"They won the title last season," continued the veteran guard, "and the Lakers have a bad track record," a reference to Los Angeles' playoff performances in recent years.

"I don't think they can maintain their current pace," he added. "They've got to hit a slump, sooner or later."

Knicks hit on 12 of 20 field goal attempts, many from the high post. And when everybody ganged up on "Big Man," it left sophomore Marcus Washington free to drive the baseline from his corner post. Washington scored 19 for the game.

Two other members of the Associated Press' Top Ten had to come from behind in the second half to win.

Ninth-ranked Virginia, trailing 57-51 with eight minutes to go, outscored Wake Forest 17-3 in the next seven minutes to register a 74-64 Atlantic Coast conference victory at Wake Forest.

Virginia, 10-0, pulled ahead 59-58 with 5:24 to go on a pair of free throws by Frank DeWitt. Barry Parkhill of Virginia led all scorers with 20 points and teammate Jim Hobgood added 17.

Powless tried a combination man-to-man and zone defense, to no avail. "The defense we were playing was to try to disallow or limit the pass to the high post, because Chones can just turn around and pop from there."

It didn't work. Chones hit on 12 of 20 field goal attempts, many from the high post. And when everybody ganged up on "Big Man," it left sophomore Marcus Washington free to drive the baseline from his corner post. Washington scored 19 for the game.

Springfield Treasure Is Sought

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Paul Cornish of Powell, Delaware County, is hot on the trail of buried treasure—in Springfield.

Cornish says he has information that a John Snyder of Springfield once buried copper pots filled with gold somewhere in the city. He thinks the treasure trove is in Snyder Park, donated to the city long ago by a family of the same name, the family of John Snyder.

Cornish began his hunt last year when he signed a contract with the city commission for permission to run test drillings at various spots around the park. All he found were metal refuse drums. The contract has since expired.

Undiscouraged, Cornish revealed last week he has new directions to the treasurer, but they depend on locating a cliff or building that was called the "abutment" by early Springfieldites.

Cornish says he will appeal to local residents for help in locating the landmark.

But the amateur treasure hunter admits that even if he does find the pots of gold, his problems aren't over. "I'll still have the problem of obtaining another contract from the city," he conceded.

Charles E. Wilson, Former GE President, Dies At 85

BRONXVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — Charles Edward Wilson believed that most people who fail to get what they want "don't want it badly enough to do the hard work—there just ain't no golden chariot that will take you there."

Wilson himself worked 60 hours a week and his labors took him from office boy to president of the General Electric Co. and to key posts as the government's industrial mobilizer during World War II and the Korean War.

When he died Monday in Lawrence Hospital at age 85 he held honorary degrees from 21 colleges and universities despite the fact that he had left school after the eighth grade to take that first office boy's job.

Wilson's special gift lay in his ability to solve complex industrial problems, to synthesize the suggestions of associates, brush aside the trivialities and quickly arrive at a decision.

He was often confused with Charles Erwin Wilson of General Motors, who served as secretary of defense under President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Because GM's Wilson was often referred to as "Engine Charlie," GE's Wilson became known as "Electric Charlie."

As head of General Electric, Wilson was making $175,000 a year when President Franklin D. Roosevelt called on him in 1942 to take the $1-a-year post as vice chairman of the War Production Board.

In two years on the board he was able to increase the production of military aircraft to a record 93,369 in 1944, but resigned later that year after a series of disputes with other production board officials.

His performance was so impressive that President Harry S. Truman named him director of the Office of Defense Mobilization during the Korean War—with full authority and full responsibility as Wilson wanted.

President Eisenhower picked Wilson in 1956 to be president of the People to People Foundation, which promoted international understanding during the cold war.

In recent years Wilson lived in Scarsdale N.Y. His wife, Elizabeth, died a year ago. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Hugh Pierce, and one grandchild.

The bidding:
West North East South
1 ♠ Pass Pass 2 ♥
Pass 4 ♥

Opening lead—jack of spades.

It is clear that any kind of chance is better than none at all. The principle asserts itself in many forms during the bidding and play, but it is not always easy to recognize and apply the principle.

Take this case where West leads a spade against four hearts. East wins with the ace and returns a spade.

Declarer leads a heart from dummy and loses the queen to the ace. Eventually the defenders take the ace of clubs and another trump trick, and South finishes down one.

The outcome seems normal, but actually declarer committed a grave error. Had he played the hand properly, he would have made the contract instead of going down.

At trick three, when South led the heart from dummy, he should have played the eight from his hand, not the queen. Granted that this play is unusual with such a combination, nevertheless unusual plays are not barred when the circumstances are right.

The clue to the proper play lies in the bidding. East, who shows up with the ace of spades at trick one, cannot also have the ace of hearts in view of his pass of one spade.

Therefore, when the heart is led and East follows low, it cannot be right to play the queen and lose the trick to the ace. This play is sure to lead to the loss of a second trump trick, no matter how the trumps are divided.

However, the play of the eight offers a legitimate chance for the contract. It rests on the hope that East may have been dealt the J-10-x or J-10-x-x of trumps. True, it is not much of a chance, but any kind of chance is surely better than no chance at all.

Pole Traps For Birds Illegal In England

LONDON (AP) — The Royal Society for the Protection of Birds in Britain has launched a campaign against the illegal pole trap.

Traps are fixed to poles, which seem to offer birds an enticing perch. When the bird alights, steel jaws snap on its legs. Britain's birds of prey — particularly golden eagles, kestrels and owls — are common victims.

A spokesman said the society plans legal action against trapsetters and poisoners.

Savings Bank savings is the investment for people who like good earnings but don't like risk.

There are no quick overnight profits, no equally sudden losses. You know your money is growing every day, that it's yours and you can have it returned, dollar for dollar... plus interest added. The Savings Bank guarantees it and the account of each depositor is insured to $20,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Automatic Savings makes adding money to your account easier... and just about fool-proof.

When you check and save at The Savings Bank you can tell us how much to transfer from your checking account to savings each week or month. We do it for you automatically and at no charge. It does make your savings grow much faster.

Draw this excellent interest as long as you wish, you'll still have every dollar of your beginning deposit. If you have a change of plans you can withdraw part or all of your 5% interest-plus funds at any quarterly withdrawal period and never lose a penny of your interest.

You can even Save by Mail at The Savings Bank if this is more convenient for you.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE
WEDNESDAY, JAN. 5

ARIES
(March 21 to April 20)
A slow start likely, with increasing momentum as the day progresses, so don't let down in effort. Establish a solid foundation; gains can be increased.

TAURUS
(April 21 to May 21)
The impact of strengthened efforts can help to solidify gains. Skilled action should bring progress in keeping with high hopes. A good day.

GEMINI
(May 22 to June 21)
Give play to your capacity for accomplishment without seeming effort. There's opportunity now for greatly increased prestige, substantial gains.

CANCER
(June 22 to July 23)
Keep your eyes on your main goal now, and don't go off on unprofitable tangents. You can gain much ground by maintaining a consistent, comfortable pace.

LEO
(July 24 to Aug. 23)
Mixed planetary influences. Be careful not to speak out of turn, and don't press too forcibly for what you want when a few well chosen words could persuade.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)
There's more to this day than may meet the casual eye. Note where you can tie up loose ends, eliminate useless activity, wordiness.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)
Put a bit more enthusiasm into efforts now. Success can come through your alliances. The "different," if appropriate, could spark day's drive.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)
Quite unexpectedly, you may be afforded the chance to do something big, attain a new foothold on the ladder of success. Keep alert and be ready to act.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)
You may have to work harder than you thought to achieve results, but they ARE attainable. Make the best use of your skills and don't scatter energies.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
What you say and do now could have more far-reaching effects than you realize, so mark time, think things over before acting. No impulsiveness!

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)
Some interesting opportunities indicated, but some may be hidden, so you will have to ferret them out for yourself. The hunt could be an interesting one!

PISCES
(Feb. 20 to March 20)
Waste no time getting this day out of the planning stage and into enthusiastic, well-executed action. Any possible obstacle should stimulate you — not annoy.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with fine business acumen, great practicality and a will power and determination so strong that you will top at nothing to achieve set goals; which are usually very ambitious ones. There is a scholarly side to your nature, also, and you are quite likely to pursue an avocation which stimulates the intellect and requires serious study and research. When choosing a career, many fields are open to you, but you would probably be happiest in literature, science, diplomacy or teaching. Try to curb tendencies toward moodiness and undue suspicion of associates. All the fine things you would do can only be accomplished with a bright and optimistic approach. Two Mice Replaced

STOKE-ON-TRENT, England (AP) — A museum here has fired two of its personnel because they're shy of people. The victims are two mice. They were kept to run round a model treadmill generating electricity. But they couldn't stand the crowds peering at them. The museum has given the job to three gerbils, another kind of rodent.

Bell Reports 'Small Gain' In New Phone Installations

Ohio Bell Telephone Co. spent a total of $240 million during 1971 to expand and modernize its facilities statewide, but in doing so the company ended the year with a net growth of fewer than 110,000 additional telephones — lowest since 1963.

"And in order to obtain this small gain," said President Frederick R. Eckley, "we were required to install and remove more than 1,787,000 telephones, mostly as a result of customer moves in a highly mobile society."

"We hope to move ahead on schedule during 1972 with further service improvements totaling a record $269 million," Eckley continued. "But these plans are contingent upon our being able to raise an additional $173.5 million in new capital in order to support them. And to accomplish this, we are looking forward to being permitted to make the rate adjustments we have asked the Public Utilities Commission to approve in the application filed with them last Aug. 9."

"It's a fact of economic life," Eckley continued, "that people are most likely to invest their savings in a business that will give them a fair return on their investment. So it followed that our rates have to be set at levels that will give us the earnings we need to pay for the use of investor savings."

"There is a unique distinction," Eckley said, "between public utilities and other businesses. And one of the most important distinctions is that the name of the game in the utility industry is providing service when and where it is needed and at levels of quality our customers have every right to expect. We have no other reason for being."

"Unlike manufacturing industries," Eckley went on to say, "we're captives of the market we serve. We don't have the option of ignoring demand until it peaks to a point where tooling up to meet it could be highly profitable. We provide an essential service to the public — and the supply of that service should satisfy any and all demands our customers make of us."

TV Viewing

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "The

Doris Day Show" on CBS has been radically remodeled annually for four years now and "they"—as Miss Day refers to network executives ordering the changes—have finally gotten TV's Doris Martin into a character identical to those the actress played in all those light film comedies.

Miss Day now plays a bachelor girl who is a star reporter on a San Francisco-based magazine. She is bright, optimistic, winsome and even occasionally funny—in spite of the show's scripts.

A few weeks ago, Doris was a happy kidnap victim in some revolutionary Balkan state. This Monday night she was pretending to be a nurse in order to worm out of a stricken billionaire some story about economics.

Her boss this season, played by John Dehner, is a boisterous

Thomas Van Meter To Replace Leedy

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP) — Thomas A. Van Meter, 28, assistant registrar of Ashland College, has been selected to replace Sen. James K. Leedy, R-19 Wooster, in the 109th General Assembly.

Leedy resigned last Thursday.

tyrant with a temper and below almost exactly that of Gale Gordon, Lucy's boss on the preceding program. Miss Day's comedy style is quieter and more effective—or would be if she had better material.

"Here's Lucy" had Helen Hayes as a guest star. The distinguished actress seemed miscast as a little old lady staying with Lucille Ball as a house guest for a week. There was some far-fetched nonsense about a seance, mostly to give Lucy and Gale a chance to dress up as the ghosts of Josephine and Napoleon.

In spite of the talents of Miss Hayes and Miss Ball, the half hour was definitely lesser Lucy.

Dean Martin is now officially among television's superstars: He has his own pro-am golf tournament, the Dean Martin Tucson Open, which NBC will televise the weekend of Jan. 27.

Martin joins the select company that includes Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Glen Campbell, Andy Williams, Danny Thomas and Jackie Gleason. Each sponsors a charity benefit tournament.

The device of naming a tournament for a well-known star works well for all concerned. The big star is honored and gives the tournament some clout in persuading other celebrities to play. The presence of celebrities attracts television coverage and larger galleries.

Court Orders Remapping In Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — After more than a decade of litigation, a three-judge federal court has ordered reapportionment of the Alabama Legislature.

The ruling was described by one lawmaker as a breakthrough for black people in the state.

Rep. Fred Gray, one of two negroes in the legislature, said the decision Monday will allow blacks in Alabama to be represented for the first time "in proportion to our strength."

The new formula, ordered into effect with the 1974 general election, creates 105 single-member districts in the House and 35 in the Senate. Senate districts are each composed of three House districts.

Charles Morgan, southeastern director of the American Civil Liberties Union, said, "The effect of this case can be to require single district representation across the South."

Morgan was a plaintiff in a suit which led to a 1964 U.S. Supreme Court ruling requiring both houses of state legislatures to be apportioned on a population basis. The suit involved Alabama and five other Southern states.

The reapportionment plan approved Monday by Circuit Judge Richard T. Rives and District Judges Frank M. Johnson Jr. and Daniel H. Thomas is the same one proposed by plaintiffs in the Supreme Court case, one of whom began litigation in 1961.

The plan gives blacks a better chance of being elected by allowing them to run in predominantly Negro districts which are inside counties with white voting majorities.

Under the previous system, representatives were elected in countywide voting, and Negroes claimed that the chances of electing a black were virtually nonexistent.

The court-approved plan allows the candidates to be voted on only in their district.

3 New Council Members Named At Milledgeville

MILLEDGEVILLE — Two new Council members, a mayor and a clerk-treasurer, all elected in November, were sworn into office at the reorganizational meeting of Milledgeville's Village Council.

Johnny Dale Blair, who succeeded Uric Allen in the village's top position, Councilmen Larry Anderson and Tom Anderson, and Clerk-Treasurer Mrs. Bessie Massie, took a couple of matters into consideration at the year's first meeting.

Blair appointed three councilmen — Charles Morgan, John Grooms and Arnett Kelley — to join George Smith and the Andersons on the village administration.

Since there is no town hall in Milledgeville, Council entered into an agreement with Jasper Township trustees to use the township house in Plymouth for meetings which will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday. The next meeting will be Jan. 15.

Sabina Council To Reorganize Tuesday Night

SABINA — Two councilmen and the clerk, who were elected last November, were sworn in at the Village Council meeting Monday night, but the organization of Council had to be postponed until Tuesday night for lack of a quorum.

William Stewart, who was sworn in last week by Edward Hodge, the retiring mayor, administered the oath of office to Councilmen Larry Goodwin and Herman Newman and Clerk Tom Woods, who was re-elected.

The other two members of Council are Robert Case and Gerald Yarger, whose term did not expire. Reorganization of Council had been planned, but when Yarger could not be present the session was adjourned and another meeting was scheduled.

Nixon Rapidly Approaching Presidential Mileage Mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has spent more time away from the White House than in it during the first three years of his presidency.

He chalked up more than 300,000 miles of travel, to all 50 states, the Virgin Islands, Guam, Midway and 19 countries.

Nixon will have to almost double that to surpass Lyndon B. Johnson's total presidential mileage, but available records show Nixon is already a more-traveled president than either John F. Kennedy or Harry S. Truman.

When Truman made his farewell address, he boasted he had traveled 135,000 miles by air, 77,000 by rail and 17,000 by ship.

There are no records on President Eisenhower's mileage, but train and sea sources virtually disappeared during his years in office.

John F. Kennedy traveled about 215,000 miles during his shortened term, very few by boat or rail. Johnson logged 523,000 miles between November 1963 and January 1969, according to records at the LBJ Library in Austin, Tex. Virtually all the mileage was by air.

Nixon has taken a few rides on Navy ships and tried out the new Penn Central Metroliner train on a 270-mile round trip from Washington to Philadelphia. But virtually all of his 301,000 miles through Dec. 31, 1971, have been accumulated by air.

Records show Nixon was away from Washington for all or part of 551 days and in the nation's capital for all or part of 514 days during his first three years.

He has averaged about 25 weekends per year at the presidential retreat in the Catskill Mountains at Camp David, Md., far more than any recent president. Though not always at the retreat, Nixon was away from Washington for all but six weekends in 1971.

Four Candidates Penalized For Report Failure

A total of four candidates who sought election in the November general election failed to file expense statements with the Fayette County Board of Elections by the Dec. 17 filing deadline as required by law.

Mrs. Louise Rodgers, deputy elections director, was notified Monday by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown that the four candidates will be barred from seeking election to any office for a period of five years.

The candidates and the offices which they sought were: John A. Zeller, Rt. 3, Sabina, Jasper Township trustee; John C. Milstead, Rt. 1, Jeffersonville, Jefferson Township trustee; Milan Plavitsky, Biddle Blvd., Bloomingburg, mayor of Bloomingburg; and David D. Weaver, Bloomingburg, trustee of the Bloomingburg Board of Public Affairs.

Second Car Arson Probe Under Way

Police and fire officials are probing another possible automobile arson incident that occurred sometime over the weekend.

Police reported that someone had apparently deliberately set fire to a 1962 model car parked on the used car lot at Don's Auto Sales, 518 Clinton Ave. The blaze died for lack of oxygen as the doors and windows on the car were shut tightly, officers said.

Damage to the headliner and front seat of the car was set at $150. Police said the incident possibly could be connected with another similar incident which occurred over the weekend, involving a car parked at a Draper Street residence.

City School Board Elects Highfield

Robert N. Highfield, of 414 Van Deman St., who won a second four-year term on the Washington C. H. Board of Education at the November election, was elected as the board's president during its reorganizational meeting Monday night.

Highfield, immediate past vice president, succeeds Paul Crosby, who retired from the board after his term of office expired Dec. 31. Crosby did not seek re-election nor did another former board president, Dr. Byers W. Shaw.

Fred L. Domenico, veteran city board member and the board's representative to the Hamilton County Joint Vocational School District Board of Education, was elected vice president.

Sworn in at the outset of the meeting as new board members were James R. Wilson and Walter Eugene Bienz.

The board voted unanimously to retain the present salaries for board members at $3 per meeting with a limit of $36 a year and agreed to continue to meet twice a month, on the first and third Mondays, at 7:30 p.m., except during the months of June, July and August when the board will meet only on the third Monday.

CITY TEACHERS have been given retroactive pay increases, through the December payroll, on salary increases awarded last July by the board, but withheld because of the price and wage freeze, Superintendent Marshall D. Boggs reported. He said the teachers now have been paid retroactively from Sept. 1 through December on the new salary schedule adopted by the board.

However, another salary schedule mandated through House Bill 475, establishing minimum salaries for all teachers in Ohio, has yet to be implemented. Superintendent Boggs said there are many areas on the new schedule which are below the present pay scale and must be brought up as of Jan. 1. He added that financial support from the state to implement the plan is not expected to be distributed until March 15.

The board, following an overture from the City Teachers Association on a difference of interpretation of the bill, agreed to meet in recessed session next Monday night with the CTA's professional relations committee, not only to resolve the salary schedule, but also to work on an appropriations resolution for 1972.

IN OTHER matters, the board:

Learned that a "Drug Abuse Team" from Chillicothe will sponsor a program geared to inform parents about drug problems in the Junior High School Auditorium Jan. 19;

Discussed the start of the HCVSD school at Clinton County AFB, especially enrollment, busing problems and the possibility of losing vocational courses at Washington Senior High School. Along this line, superintendents in the vocational district are to meet Jan. 7 to learn what definite plans for the school opening in September have been formed;

Authorized the purchase of four legal files for the clerk's office at an estimated cost of $750;

Granted permission to the Sertoma Club to sell refreshments during their Sunday-sponsored activity period at the Junior High School gym, subject to normal rules and regulations;

Agreed to study the curriculum, other programs and board policies in order to make recommendations at the next regular meeting;

Authorized minor alterations in the auditorium to facilitate storage of the "onstage" piano in a small dressing room;

Reviewed the annual report of the county sanitarian and listed a priority of corrections to be made in school buildings; and

Learned that a total of 18 applications for the superintendent's position have been received to date and agreed to meet in a work session to review them, but did not establish a date.

Drivers Charged After Collisions

Two drivers were cited by city police for improper backing after two minor mishaps on S. Main Street Monday. No other accidents were reported throughout the city-county area.

Mary G. Wilson, 72, of 913 S. Fayette St. was cited after she apparently backed her car from a parking space in the 200 block of S. Main Street, just south of East Street and struck a car driven by Georgia P. Day, 59, of 335 W. Oak St. The Day car was stopped for the traffic light at the time.

Damage in the 12:20 p.m. collision was estimated at $100 to the Day car.

A similar accident occurred in the 100 block of S. Main Street at 11:05 p.m. Officers reported that a car driven by Eva W. Jett, 68, of Greenfield, had backed from a parking space and struck a northbound car driven by Charles E. Haines, 54, of 313 Florence St.

Mrs. Jett was cited for improper backing. Officers estimated damage at $100 to the Haines car.

Patton Resigns Position With Fayette Bank

Donald P. Woods, president of the Fayette County Bank, and Hugh S. Patton, vice president, Tuesday jointly announced Patton's resignation, effective Jan. 15.

Patton indicated in his letter of resignation that the step was necessary in order that he may devote more time to his personal business. He is the operator of the Sunshine Laundry and Dry Cleaning Co.

Woods said that the bank's board of directors accepted the resignation with regret and expressed its appreciation for Patton's services.

"We are sure," Woods said, "that the bank and Mr. Patton will continue to enjoy the same cordial relations as in the past."

Patton, president of the Washington C. H. Area Chamber of Commerce, joined the Fayette County Bank Dec. 1, 1970. He intends to devote his full time to the Sunshine firm.

Preliminary plans for the Kiwanis-sponsored 1972 Teen Talent show were discussed, and J. Paul Strevey and Jack Sommers were appointed to attend the Key Club meeting Thursday.

Steven R. Jennings and James A. Teeters were guests of Duane French.

New Holland Village Council Reorganizes

NEW HOLLAND — Clarence Brown, a veteran member of the Village Council, was elected its president pro tem at a reorganization meeting Monday night conducted by the new mayor, Wilbur Frazier. Frazier succeeds Lincoln Schwartz.

Frazier and two new councilmen, George Hoti and Gary Kirkpatrick, elected last November, and Mrs. Schwartz, the new clerk-treasurer, were sworn in last week. Mrs. Schwartz succeeds William Davidson.

The other members of Council are Roger Hecoax, Joe Longberry and Howard Garrison. The mayor also serves as the president of Council.

Council adopted a budget of $54,950, about $2,500 less than the 1971 budget.

Seven key committees were set up:

Finance — Longberry, chairman, Hecoax and Kirkpatrick; fire and safety — Garrison, Kirkpatrick and Brown; streets and parks — Brown, Hoti and Garrison; building — Longberry, Hecoax and Brown; lights — Hecoax, Kirkpatrick and Longberry; Purchasing and recreation — Garrison, Kirkpatrick and Hoti; zoning — Hecoax, Longberry and Hoti.

Hecoax was named Council's representative on the Board of Public Affairs; Kirkpatrick on the Fire Protection board and Brown on the Cemetery Board. Garrison was named supervisor of the village dump.

Schwartz reported fines and costs assessed during December, his last month as mayor, totaled $317.20, mostly for traffic violations.

Council also raised the salary of Police Chief Frank Wood from $130 to $150 for a 48-hour week and approved sale of the old police cruiser radio to Lowell Marvin for $45.

Continuances Granted In Four Forgery Cases

Four persons arrested here Thursday on forgery charges appeared in Municipal Court Monday before Judge Reed M. Winegardner for preliminary hearings.

All four were granted continuances of their cases so they can consult with an attorney. The quartet is now scheduled for arraignment at 1 p.m. Friday.

Being held under $10,000 bond each are Shawna J. Smith, 21, charged with passing an altered money order and Celia Maria Duarte, 21, Cecil Page, 22, and Wayne R. Cross, 25, all charged with aiding and abetting in passing an altered money order.

Washington C.H. police arrested the quartet Thursday after one of them allegedly passed an altered money order at Soldan's Womens Apparel Store, 212 E. Court St.

Additional charges against the four have also been filed here from several other police departments throughout the state.

IN OTHER cases heard by Judge Winegardner two men arrested by police for resisting arrest over the weekend received heavy fines and jail sentences.

Lemuel Jester, 42, of 427 Walnut St., was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 15 days in jail on the resisting charge. Judge Winegardner also imposed a 15-day suspended jail sentence from a previous conviction and added another 15 days when Jester pleaded "no contest" to a disorderly conduct charge filed by his wife. He also was fined an additional $100 on the disorderly conduct complaint.

Harrison L. Brown, 19, of 903 E. Temple St., was fined a total of $300 and sentenced to 15 days in jail after he was found guilty of three police charges.

Brown received a $100 fine and five-day jail sentence on each of the three charges; resisting arrest, assault and disorderly conduct.

He had been arrested by police at his home after a disturbance there Friday afternoon.

A GUILTY plea was entered by Harry V. Wheeler, 24, Milledgeville, to a charge of destruction of property filed by sheriff's deputies in connection with the shooting out of six lights in Milledgeville Sunday night.

Tires Worth $330 Taken By Burglars

Burglars made off with seven tires valued at $330 from a service station at the Ohio 38 and I-71 interchange, the Sheriff's Department reports.

Deputies said the burglars hit the Sohio station there sometime late Sunday or early Monday. The intruders gained entry by breaking out a window in an overhead door on the east side of the building.

The burglars took seven tires from the racks inside and officers found another at the rear of the station. Four tires were found lying inside on the station floor. An agent from the Bureau of Criminal Identification, London, is assisting in the investigation.

Oscar Glass, owner of Glass Used Cars, Ohio 41-S, reported that a windshield on one of the cars parked on the lot had been cracked sometime since Dec. 25. Officers said the crack could have resulted from a rock thrown by a passing car or a shot from an air rifle.

Youth Treated For Gun Wound

A 17-year-old Washington C. H. youth was reported in "guarded condition" in Memorial Hospital Tuesday morning following surgery after he apparently attempted to take his own life with a rifle Monday night.

Police said the youth was taken to the hospital just after 6 p.m. Monday, minutes after he had shot himself in the stomach with a .22 caliber rifle.

The housekeeper at the boy's home told police she had heard a noise "like a firecracker" and then the youth stumbled into the kitchen and said he had shot himself.

Police said the youth had been upset over the recent breakup with a girlfriend.
